

Student Name:

Assignment Objective: Students are to create a 2 host script that will introduce the edited video items for their group’s summative broadcast. Hosts will “perform” the script.
Assignment Expectations:

- The best scripts will be exciting and use engaging vocabulary (active verbs and descriptive adjectives) - Review of “Script Tips” from the class script writing lesson available on Weebly
- Script must have 4 sentence “intro” (minimum) for each of the 2 edited items
- Script must have 2 sentence “extro” (minimum) for each of the 2 edited items
- Scripts must follow the provided formatting exemplar (Weebly).
- Scripts are evaluated based on their content AND formatting.

TV Show & Segments - Script Writing Rubric
Level 4 Exceeds	Level 3 Met	Level 2 Approaching	Level 1 In Development
Script follows the exemplar format for 2 hosts to “share the air” - alternate reading lines
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script is written for 2 hosts and follows exemplar formatting• All required sentences submitted	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script is written for 2 hosts to alternate “lines”• Script includes 4 sentences for intros• Script includes 2 sentences for extros	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script is written for 2 hosts but they don’t share equally in their lines• Parts of Intros and/or Extro missing	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script does is not written for 2 hosts• Intros and/or Extros are missing
Script Content - Creative/Engaging script
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script includes excellent information that sets up the items effectively so the viewer knows what to expect without the item being “spoiled”• Excellent sentence structure is used and creative word choices are made to create excitement around the items.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Word choices are exciting (verbs & adjectives)• Script is descriptive and goes beyond stating facts• Intros and extros set-up the item without being a “spoiler”	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script includes some relevant information but lacks creativity - descriptive word choices	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Script is incomplete or lacks real information to be delivered creatively

Total Mark: /100